

Migration, Integration and Governance research centre

Overview

Nikos Zaharis, SEERC

* This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 857261

Project vision

Serbia: a country hosting IDPs, a transition country for refugees, a country of origin of migrants

MIGREC's ambition is to become a regional hub for Migration Studies in the Western Balkans.

Three thematic areas.

- Migrant Integration.
- Migration-development nexus.
- Migration Governance.

Activities

- Stock taking: University of Belgrade, Serbia, Western Balkans
- Strategy and Action Plan
- PhD program
- Training program: domain specific and horizontal and transferable skills
- Networking, Dissemination and Sustainability

Duration: 3 years

Partnership and roles

- ❑ University of Belgrade, Faculty of Political Sciences (coordinator)
- ❑ University of Sheffield – Migration Research Group
 - ❑ Migration studies expertise
- ❑ ELIAMEP (Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy) – Southeast Europe Program
 - ❑ Western Balkans political and economic expertise
- ❑ South East European Research Centre
 - ❑ Institution building and research development expertise

Thank You!

More info:

<https://migrec.fpn.bg.ac.rs/>

